

Introduction for Detective Kevin Coffey (Travel Industry Associations)

Our speaker Kevin Coffey is a leading resource to the hospitality, travel and tour industries on travel and meeting risk avoidance and response techniques.

Kevin is a personal safety coach, author, and instructor at the University of Southern California's Safe Communities Institute and a highly decorated and now retired detective from the LAPD. It's his investigative work with the LAPD and founding of the Airport's Crimes Investigation Detail at the Los Angeles International Airport, Hotels, and Car Rental Agencies that launched Kevin's passion to protect those who travel.

He now conducts educational seminars for business travelers as well as for groups such as: GBTA, SITE, MPI, ACTE, ASTA plus hoteliers, transport companies, and other travel industry suppliers on travel risk mitigation and duty of care policies.

You've most likely seen Kevin during one of his numerous TV appearances as a leading travel safety expert on CNN, ABC's 20/20, The Today Show, Good Morning America, The Travel Channel, and Oprah, or quoted in the written press.

His list of clients includes Avis, California Travel Association, Amgen, Travel and Transport, ExxonMobil, Blue Cross, Boeing, the FBI, Panasonic, Samsung, Toyota, and now (insert the name of your organization here)

Please welcome the "Scholar of Thievery" from Calabasas, California, Detective Kevin Coffey.

Web: www.KevinCoffey.com Phone: 818 225 1991